ALGC Institute 2010

Bridging Diversity and Distance with Learning

July 10 – 13 in Sydney
July 14 – 16 in Melbourne
Contents

Program.......................................................................................................................................................................... Error! Bookmark not defined.
Saturday 10th........................................................................................................................................................................ 4
Sunday 11th ............................................................................................................................................................................. 5
Monday 12th ............................................................................................................................................................................ 6
Tuesday 13th ............................................................................................................................................................................ 9
Wednesday 14th ................................................................................................................................................................. 10
Thursday 15th ..................................................................................................................................................................... 13
Friday 16th ........................................................................................................................................................................ 16

Participants in ALGC 2010
Barb McPherson (Cohort 2004, Australia)
Paul Stacey (Cohort 2004, Canada)
Ann-Christine Gustavsson (Cohort 2002, Sweden)
Eva Paldanius (Cohort 2002, Sweden)
Deo Bishundayal (and partner Brenda Eventt) (Cohort 2002, Canada)
Gunhild Carlsson (Cohort 2002, Sweden)
Kirsty Foster (Cohort 2002, Australia)
Garnet Grosjean (Canada, UBC)
Tom Sork (Canada, UBC)
Matt Guyan (Cohort 2009- Australia)
Shana Rablah (Cohort 2007, Canada)

Mike Adamson (Cohort 2007, Australia)
Gavin Pilz (Cohort 2001, Australia)
ALGC Institute Australia 2010

Program
Delegates arrive Friday 9th or Saturday 10th July

Saturday evening
Informal dinner Chinatown Sydney

Sunday 11th July
Morning
09.45 Meet at Maroubra Beach (Buses 377 bus, at 9.29am 396, 397
Beach walk – and whale watching at Magic Point
12.30 BBQ lunch at Maroubra (Kirsty’s home)
17.30: ALGC Official Welcome, Australian Centre for Photography, 257 Oxford Street Paddington - walking distance from Y Hotel or 378 or 380 bus

Monday 12th July
Room 580, Level 5, Building 10, UTS: Education, University of Technology, 235 Jones Street, Broadway
9.30 Seminar 1: “Virtual Communities of Practice” led by Tom Sork and Garnet Grosjean from UBC with presentations and discussion
Seminar 2: Led by Dr Elaine Swan, Senior Lecturer in the Faculty of Arts and Social Science at UTS around the topic of Therapeutic Cultures
Lunch – in UTS cafeteria
ALGC Alumni presentations from Paul Stacey and Deo Bishundayal
Gunhild Carlsson

Tuesday 13th July
9.30 Travel by train to St Leonards Station
Sydney Medical School- Northern, Kolling Building, Royal North Shore Hospital, St Leonards http://sydney.edu.au/medicine/northern/http://www.scscs.edu.au/
9.30 Orientation to medical education at Sydney University and tour of facilities: Kirsty
10.30 Clinical Skills for Health Professionals : Hands on session
Jacquie Langereis, Clinical Skills Coordinator, Post Graduate Courses, Skills Division
Lunch
Afternoon
Simulation for Critical care Skills, Communications and Teamwork
Sue Wulf: Technical Operations Manager, Simulation Division
Dr Zoe Rogers, Emergency Medicine Fellow
Evening – travel to Melbourne

Wed 14th July – Monash University -
Organised by Terri and Matt –International Education
Including presentations by ALGC alumni
- Ann Christine Gustavsson (Sweden): The LYSA Project, workplace based training as a qualified complement to formal education
- Kirsty Foster (Australia): Building Critical Care Capacity in Timor Leste through Education

Thurs 15th July –
Morning: Free for exploration of Melbourne
Afternoon: Seminar: eWorks & Flexible Learning Framework -
Including presentation by Paul Stacey

Fri 16th July
Morning BlueScope Steel – corporate visit – Mornington Peninsula
Organisational culture & work-based learning systems
This company currently holds top Safety record in world
Afternoon: Sightseeing Mornington Peninsula
Churchill Farm, Koala Conservation Park, Penguin Parade
Friday evening – Closing ceremony and handover to next location Pizza supper at Whitley College (Deo’s place)

Saturday: Depart
Saturday 10th ALGC 2010 kicks off in Chinatown Sydney

Exhausted from an arduous day climbing the Blue Mountains, Ann-Christine, Eva, Paul, Deo and Brenda rallied to meet up with Garnet and Jan, Brenda and Deo, Tom, Kirsty and Paul to experience the culinary delights of Chinatown.
Sunday 11th
Sunday we mastered Sydney’s MetLink catching a bus to Maroubra Beach for sand, surf and socialising followed by a delicious lunch at Kirsty’s. Gavin and partner xxx, (cohort 2002) and yyyy (cohort 2010) joined us.
And afterwards the official ALGC 2010 opening with a tour of the Australian Centre for Photography and warm welcome and keynote speech from Director Alastair Foster.
Monday morning we set out for our first official session which for, sentimental reasons was being held at UTS (University of Technology Sydney).
Dr Elaine Swan

Integrating personal learning environments using IT

Deo Bishundayal

E-Learning With Diversity – Notes From The Field
Managing Conflict In A Case Study Assignment

Gun Carlsson introduced us to the mystery of “fresco” painting.
Tuesday 13th University of Sydney – Medical School
Workplace learning in Botswana

Julie Dyer
Researcher

Building the international self
Julie Dyer
Monash University
Wednesday 14th July 2010

A Quibble of Lawyers: Negotiating the Complexities of International University Partnerships
Thomas J. Sork and Garnet Grosjean
The University of British Columbia
ALGC Institute – Monash University
Melbourne, Australia
July 14, 2010
AND LATER THAT NIGHT, DINNER AT AN IRISH PUB
Thursday 15\textsuperscript{th} eWorks

Howard Errey

Barb McPherson

Paul Stacey described the work and role of BCCampus

Kenneth Gooding – Toolbox champion, and eLearning support services at eWorks
Dinner at South Bank on the Yarra, at the Blue Train Cafe
Friday 16th BlueScope Steel

Signing in

Harry and Garry – before the plant tour

After the plant tour -
Friday afternoon – Phillip Island

Churchill Farm
Koala Conservation Centre
Penguin Parade
Closing ceremony and hand over for ALGC